Call for Papers

SUST Journal of Science and Technology is a multidisciplinary peer-reviewed journal published by Shahjalal University of Science and Technology. Since the university provides funds to cover all costs of publication, including the Article Processing Charges (APC's) for all authors, the journal is both free to read and free to publish in. The journal is published biannually (June and December issue) in both print and online version. It is registered with the National Serials Data Program, Library of Congress (ISSN1682-895X).

This journal aims to provide a platform for scientists, academicians, professional engineers, and researchers to share and discuss various new issues and developments in different areas of science and technology. The editorial board, hence, welcomes original research/review articles in areas of science, applied science, technology, biological science, forestry and allied fields for publication.

This journal uses a double-blind review for selecting the papers for publication. After submission, all the papers are refereed and peer-reviewed by a minimum of two experts from the relevant field.

The forthcoming issue of the Journal will be published in June 2019. We welcome the submission of scientific/review articles for possible inclusion in the forthcoming issue within 15th June. For rapid communication, please submit the article to the Editor-in-Chief via e-mail: saiful-che@sust.edu.

Please use the given manuscript format, and write the article following the Authors guideline enclosed herewith.

Abstract

For this journal, the length of the abstract is limited to 150 to 200 words. It should be in Times New Roman, size 10, regular font. The abstract should state the purpose of the research, the principal results and major conclusions briefly.

Keywords: Provide a maximum of 6 words or phrase in Times New Roman, size 10, regular font separated by a semicolon, e.g., Keyword1; Keyword2; Keyword6

1. Online submission

For the online submission, first, register yourself providing all the necessary information. Then login to the web portal, and fill the portion asked for. Provide information about all authors including the corresponding author and maintain a serial of authors.

2. Cover letter

Please include the date of submission, address, subject and declaration in the cover letter. In the declaration, you must confirm that the manuscript submitted has been prepared following authors' guideline, and the content of the manuscript or a major portion thereof has not been published in a refereed journal, or submitted for publication elsewhere.

3. Theme

Please select one of the themes given in the list.

4. Manuscript preparation

Prepare the manuscript in the prescribed format according to the following instructions. Please do not alter the format or the paper size.

4.1. Paper size

Prescribed paper size is 21 x 29.7cm. Select the 'Mirror margin', and set the given margin for the whole document: Top:2.54 cm, Bottom:2 cm, Inside:3.3 cm, Outside:2 cm, and gutter: 0.

4.2. Title

It should be concise and informative. Avoid abbreviations and formulae where possible. Limit the title in 200 characters. Type the title in Times New Roman, size 14, boldface, 1.5 lines, 6 pt. spacing before and after the title.

4.3. Authors' name

Please clearly indicate the given name(s) and family name(s) of each author and check that all names are accurately spelled. Write the authors name in Times New Roman, size 12 regular font; provide their affiliations (full postal address and, if available, email address of each author). Affiliation should be in Times New Roman, size 11 regular font;

Indicate who will handle correspondence at all stages of refereeing and publication, also post-publication.

4.6. Headings

Divide the article into clearly defined and numbered heading. Subheadings should be numbered 1.1 (then 1.1.1, 1.1.2, ...), 1.2, etc. (the abstract is not included in section numbering). Please use no more than three levels of displayed headings. Headings should be in Times New Roman, Size 11, Bold face and Subheadings should be in Times New Roman, Size 10, Boldface. Use 8 pt. spacing before and after the headings and subheadings.

4.7. Main Text of the Manuscript

In the preparation of text, the authors should pay attention to the language (usage of words grammar and contraction of sentences), logical presentation, enumeration of assumption made, justification of approximations made etc. and all the limitations must be stated wherever and whenever necessary. Moreover, an article must be self-contained, its presentation being clear, concise and satisfactory.

Please write the main text of the manuscript in Times New Roman, size 10, regular font, and use 6 pt. spacing before and after the paragraph, and 'single' line spacing in the text. Cite the references in the text by number(s) in parentheses in line with the text. The actual authors can be referred to, but the reference number(s) must always be given. Example: '... as demonstrated in [2,5]. or Islam and Chowdhury [7] obtained a different result ...' Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list.

4.8. Mathematical equations

Use the equation editor to write the equation and submit equations as editable text, and not as images. Number equations consecutively with equation numbers in parentheses flush with the right margin, as in (1).

4.9. Units

Follow internationally accepted rules and conventions: use the international system of units (SI) if possible.

4.10. Figures and tables in the text

Please ensure that the figures and the tables are placed next to the relevant text in the manuscript in numeric order, rather than at the bottom or the top of the file. Provide the corresponding caption directly below the figure and above the table. The captions of the figure and the table should be in Times New Roman, size 10, regular font.

5. Conclusion

Present main conclusions in a short 'Conclusions' section, which may stand alone or form a subsection of a 'Discussion' or 'Results and Discussion' section. Do not replicate the abstract as the conclusion.

6. Acknowledgment

Place acknowledgments of people, grants, funds, etc. in a separate section at the end of the manuscript before the references.

References: Number the references in the list in the order in which they appear in the text.
